

Happy almost summer everyone

Just a few more days of spring left and then it will be officially be summer. But that also means the days start getting shorter. :( Now is the time to take advantage of all this sunlight and get out to the range to have some fun shooting. Reminder of the different opportunities we offer every month are listed on the next page under the calendar of events. We also have them listed on our website wlrsc.net. Please visit it today.

The Warroad Warriors Trap Club's spring regular season is done. The athletes participated in both Roseau & Greenbush invitational in May and early June and they have 26 of their 36 athletes signed up to go to the state championship shoot in Alexandria on June 13th. They had their season wrap up meet on May 28th. It was an evening filled with awards presented, athletes recognized for lettering in the sport for Warroad High School & some fun with High 5 and Annie Oakley shooting. Even the parents shot and had a good time.

The following were recognized at the Fun Shoot: Most improved: Cooper Tveit & Pyper Henrickson; Most Valuable: Leif Olafson & Emma Lane. The following lettered in the sport: Kendan Curtis, Jarret Kimble, Emma Lane, Hunter Larson, Owen Larson, Conner Lund, Knox Nelson, Leif Olafson, Conley Pahlen, Easton Pahlen & Grady Stoskopf. Congratulations to all!
